Snake Ladder, a game of strategy and luck, is widely loved for its simplicity and excitement. The tournament provided an opportunity for students to unwind, socialize, and showcase their skills in this timeless game. The tournament provided a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere for participants, allowing them to unwind and have fun with friends. Participants displayed strategic thinking and calculated moves as they navigated the game board and sought to outwit their opponents. The event fostered camaraderie and friendly competition among students, creating memorable experiences and lasting friendships. The annual college Snake Ladder tournament provided a welcome break from academic pursuits and offered students a chance to relax and enjoy themselves in a friendly and inclusive environment.

REPORT

Event Name	Skit
Date	07/05/2022
Organized By	SEnA
Attendees (Target)	All Students
Name of Event Coordinator	Mr. Padmini Sharma
Mentor or Guide Name	Mr. Sanjay Kumar Singh

Skit, a form of theatrical performance characterized by humor, satire, and social commentary, provide a platform for individuals to express themselves artistically and engage audiences with thought-provoking narratives. The competition brought together students from diverse backgrounds to showcase their acting skills, storytelling abilities, and stage presence. The competition attracted enthusiastic participation from students across various departments and years. Teams of students with a passion for drama and performance collaborated to create original skits or adaptations of existing works, each aiming to entertain, inspire, and provoke thought among the audience. The competition featured a variety of themes and subjects, ranging from light-hearted comedies to poignant dramas and social issues. Themes were carefully chosen to encourage creativity and provide participants with opportunities to explore different genres and narratives. The competition showcased a diverse range of skits, each offering a unique perspective, storyline, and theatrical experience. Participants demonstrated exceptional acting skills, comedic timing, and stage presence as they brought their characters to life and engaged the audience with their performances. The event provided an opportunity for students to collaborate, experiment with storytelling techniques, and explore complex themes and issues through the medium of theater. The annual college skit competition at CSIT, Durg was a testament to the creativity, talent, and collaborative spirit of students. The competition provided a platform for students to showcase their theatrical skills, entertain audiences, and engage in meaningful storytelling that resonated with their peers.
