REPORT

Reasoning Classes for final year Student

Introduction: On 9th February 2019, the Training and Placement Department of Chhatrapati Shivaji Institute of Technology, Durg organized a one-day Reasoning Class for the final year students. The purpose of the session was to enhance the students' logical and analytical reasoning skills, which are essential for success in placement interviews and competitive exams.

Session Details: The Reasoning Class commenced at 10:00 AM in the seminar hall with an introductory address by the Head of the Training and Placement Department. Expert faculty members and professionals from the industry were present to deliver the sessions. The day's schedule was meticulously planned to cover various aspects of reasoning.

Introduction to Reasoning: The session began with an overview of reasoning and its importance in problem-solving. Different types of reasoning such as deductive, inductive, and abductive reasoning were discussed, along with their practical applications.

Verbal Reasoning: The focus then shifted to verbal reasoning skills. Techniques for solving analogy, classification, series, and logical deduction problems were elucidated. Emphasis was placed on improving comprehension and critical thinking abilities through verbal reasoning exercises.

Non-Verbal Reasoning: Following verbal reasoning, the session delved into non-verbal reasoning skills. Topics including figure series, pattern recognition, spatial visualization, and analogy were covered. Visual puzzles and exercises were employed to enhance the students' spatial reasoning abilities.

Analytical Reasoning: The next segment concentrated on analytical reasoning, also known as logical reasoning. Various types of logical puzzles, syllogisms, seating arrangement problems, and data sufficiency questions were discussed. Students were encouraged to apply logical principles to analyze and solve complex problems.

Practice Sessions: Throughout the day, practice sessions were conducted to reinforce the concepts covered in the instructional segments. Students actively participated in solving reasoning problems individually and in groups, under the guidance of the instructors.

Conclusion: The one-day Reasoning Class organized by the Training and Placement Department of Chhatrapati Shivaji Institute of Technology, Durg, proved to be immensely beneficial for the final year students.
